Laminate Flooring

This flooring product comes with a limited residential structural warranty for the period indicated on the packaging.

Quickstyle Industries Inc. warrants to the original purchaser for a product purchased in its original state from a distributor, business partner or authorized dealer that this product will be free from defects in material, fabrication, laminating and assembly, machining, size and classification. This flooring product comes with a limited residential pro rata warranty for the period indicated on the packaging. A pro rata warranty is one that provides for a resolution to an accepted claim that decreases according to a set formula: $\text{Original Warranty Period less Years from Purchase Date, divided by the Original Warranty Period}$. The warranty does not apply if the damages are caused by improper installation according to the installation instructions, improper surface preparation, improper storage, improper handling, normal wear, excessive or inadequate relative humidity in the area of installation, improper maintenance.

Furthermore, damages resulting from any indentation, scratch, stain or damage caused by the lack of proper maintenance, abuse, neglect, fire, high or low excessive moisture, a severe exposure to the sun, cleaning with a wet mop, high heels, erosion, stones, sand or other abrasives, pets, insects or insufficient protection under the furniture are not covered by this warranty. Normal exposure to sunlight will cause discoloration on any hardwood floor over the years.

For any warranty issue, please refer to the original point of purchase with your sales receipt. Installation implies acceptance. No warranty will be offered for visual defects once installed. In the event a claim is accepted, we reserve the right to repair or replace the damaged area of the floor. We will assume material cost only (no incidental, labor or installation costs) and in the case where the exact purchased product is no longer available, we reserve the right to replace it with an equivalent value product available. For any claims under this Warranty, the above remedy is the sole and exclusive recourse offered to the customer.
